

Francesco Orsini

Dr. Francesco Orsini is a associate professor at the Dept. of Agricultural and Food Sciences (DISTAL), University of Bologna, Italy. Francesco published more than 100 articles in indexed scientific journals, is a FAO-UN consultant in urban agriculture projects in Asia, Latin America and Africa. He coordinates the European Project FoodE (Food systems in European Cities, funded by H2020) and the Research Project of National Interest V-Farm (Sustainable Vertical Farming) funded by the Italian Ministry for Research and Education. From 2018, Dr. Orsini launched the International Student Challenge UrbanFarm. From 2018, Dr. Orsini is the Chair of the Landscape and Urban Horticulture Division of the International Society for Horticultural Sciences (ISHS).